COMMITMENT TO ACCESSIBILITY

Your commitment to inclusive, barrier-free tourism for all in South Tyrol

There is more than 80 centimetres of space next to the bed.

We do not have special rooms for guests with allergies.

An allergy is an illness.

People with allergies do not cope well with certain things.

For example, dust or cleaning products.

There is no fridge in the rooms.

We do not have a campsite.

Our website is accessible.

This is because our website follows these rules:

Web Content Accessibility Guidelines

This means:

All people can use and understand the information on our website.

For example, people with visual impairment can have the information read out loud.

There is a doorbell at our entrance.

You can speak into the doorbell.

And a member of staff will hear you.

The doorbell is more than 1 metre 20 high.

Your dog is welcome here.

Notes and other information:

Dogs on request

You can find other important information here.

This information is not in Easy Read.

For guests who need special food choices

We do not have vegetarian food.

This means:

All our food contains fish or meat.

We do not have vegan food.

This means:

All our food contains animal products.

Animal products are, for example:

- Meat.
- Fish.
- Eggs.
- Milk.
- Butter.
- And cheese.

The food and drinks are not halal.

Halal is Arabic and means allowed.

People who believe in Islam are called Muslims.

Muslims are only allowed to eat and drink things that are halal.

For example, Muslims do not eat pork.

The food and drink are not kosher.

Kosher means pure.

People who believe in Judaism are called Jews.

Jews may only eat and drink things that are kosher.

For example, Jews are not allowed to eat milk and meat together.

We do not have gluten-free food.

This means that there is gluten in the food.

Gluten is a protein in many types of grain.

For example, in bread or pasta.

Some people cannot eat gluten.

That is because these people have an illness.

The illness is called coeliac disease.

For families with small children and strollers

We have an entrance without steps.

So you can push your buggy into the building.

The path to the entrance is good for buggies.

Buggies roll well on the path.

Our rooms have an extra single bed.

A child can sleep in this single bed, for example.

Our rooms also have a cot for small children.

You can put this cot next to the bed.

Children cannot fall out of this cot.

We do not have a baby changing table.

You cannot change your child's nappies on a baby changing table.

We do not have a special room for parents with children.
